From Past Attendees

"You will get such a detailed, in-depth look into the true processes of the country's system to be the best advocate for not only yourself, but for patients you serve. As someone who knew the bare minimum going in, doors have been opened for me to a better policy advocate in my position. All the time and wealth of information is worth it!"

"This is by far the richest, most valuable resource available. So very glad I found this pot of gold. Thank you so much."

"The training breaks down the incredibly complicated insurance world into bite size pieces that feel manageable."

"A necessary training for all treating medical professionals to guide patients in making informed decisions about their insurance/finances that will assist in mitigating additional distress as they move through a chronic illness."
